

Every Time You Breathe

By

Dyan Garris ft Juliet Lyons

Dyan Garris has really embraced the single revolution in the new age music genre, and what a better time to create a beautiful collaboration than in the middle of a chaos that surrounds us all. The connection between Garris and all time flute supremo Sherry Finzer and vocalist Juliet Lyons is what the world needs right now, a sweet and soothing musical narrative and a full flowing and fluent composition, one that brings utter peace and serenity to the soul.

The natural state of bliss brought on by this charming arrangement needs to be applauded, there is a wonderful sense of tranquillity here, and this symbiosis of Garris on piano, Finzer on flute and the vocalisations of Lyons is a truly addictive offering, one that will bring some much needed peace into your respective worlds right now.
